Bagley and Company announces the creation of a new division:

Bagley & Company Realty

Up to now, Bagley & Company has been content to continue in the role of land developers and investors, concentrating in Salt Lake and Summit counties. Because of the outstanding success of their West Jordan Industrial Park—fastest growing in Utah—Garden Valley Estates, Hi-Country Estates (five-acre ranches), Canyon Hills Professional Building, Foot-hills—a 700-acre planned community in southwest Salt Lake Valley—and the Jeremy Ranch, 12,600 acres at Parley's Summit, because they have developed so much property to sell, this new marketing division has been created.

This will be a small, qualified organization of professionals, each man with his own specialty. Bagley & Company Realty thus adds another layer of expertise over the strata of land developers and investment counselors.

Location for the new marketing organization will be in the Canyon Hills Professional Building, located adjacent to the Canyon Racquet Club at the mouth of Big Cottonwood Canyon. The Canyon Racquet Club management is also supervised by Bagley & Company.
