TRANSPORTATIONBy Air

The Greater Buffalo International Airport is located within a 20 minute drive from any of the hotels in the area. The airport is served by international, national and regional carriers. An airport shuttle (ITA shuttle) service departs from the airport on the hour (7:00 AM to 11:00 PM) and departs the hotel 20 minutes after the hour (6:20 AM to 10:20 PM). The cost is $5 one way.

American Airlines is the official airline of the German Studies Association.

Domestic Participants: As our official airline, American Airlines offers a five percent discount off the lowest published fare for all participants in the German Studies Association Conference in Buffalo, or forty percent off the regular non-restricted fare. This is a very competitive fare price. AA is also helping GSA with the conference. You may reserve your ticket at the discounted price in the same way that you have always been booking and purchasing tickets. All that you have to do is to give your travel agent our special number to qualify for the fare reduction. If your travel agent does not know how to do it, simply ask him/her to call the AA Convention Desk for information. You can also book by calling American Airlines direct, at their Convention Desk. This is a toll-free call, so dial 1-800-433-1790. Our special number is S02Z0QJ.

Transatlantic Participants: In accordance with IATA regulations, AA does not provide discounts as for domestic passengers. However, they do offer AAdvantage frequent flyer miles. Most of their flights are with modern 767s. To Buffalo, you would fly non-stop from Europe to Chicago, and change planes there for the non-stop to Buffalo. In Frankfurt, call American Airlines at 069-230591. Elsewhere in Germany, call 0130-4114.

Join the AAdvantage Frequent Flyer Program! A membership form is enclosed with this conference program.

Special Offer for GSA Members: Are you flying transatlantic this year? If you are a member and fly American Airlines, you may receive a FREE transatlantic ticket. If fifty GSA members fly transatlantic on American Airlines from July 1 - December 31, 1990, and send a xerox copy of the ticket to GSA headquarters in Arizona to prove that you have flown, GSA will present a free ticket to one lucky traveller. If you are planning a transatlantic flight, it makes sense to fly the official airline of the German Studies Association, American Airlines. AA flies from Dallas and Chicago nonstop to Germany, and connecting flights from other cities take you over these hubs very easily. They fly new 767s. Bremen has just been added to their German cities. You will also earn AAdvantage frequent flier miles if you join their program.

International participants: The United States is not a member of the European Banking Consortium, therefore, Eurocheques are not accepted by banks or by hotels, restaurants, shops, etc. You are advised to bring traveller's checks in U.S. dollars. A credit card is always useful (Eurocard, Mastercard, VISA, American Express, Diner's Club). Several banks are situated nearby. In addition, Deak International at 47 Court Street is open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday and will be glad to exchange currency for convention participants.

By Car

The best east-west corridor is Interstate 90.

By Amtrak

There are two Amtrak stations located in the area. One is near the airport hotels and the other is downtown easily accessible to the Hyatt.

By Bus

The bus terminal is located in the heart of the city within walking distance of the Hyatt.

American Airlines

Something special in the air.SM

American Airlines is the new official carrier of the German Studies Association! Fly American Airlines to the Buffalo conference and save 5% off the lowest advertised price of American Airlines flights when you use our special booking procedure. You can use your own travel agent. See inside program for details!

American Airlines flies to Europe! AA flies to Germany and should be your official carrier as well.

- FREE TRANSATLANTIC TICKET ON AA!!! If at least 50 GSA members fly transatlantic on AA from July 1-December 31, 1990, GSA will award one of them a free transatlantic AA ticket. Just send the GSR Office a xerox copy of your American Airlines ticket stub, and you will be listed for the free flight!

- 2500 BONUS AADVANTAGE MILES to GSA members of AAdvantage for their first transatlantic flight on AA from July 1-December 31, 1990. Send the GSR Office a xerox copy of your ticket stub with your AAdvantage number and name clearly typed on it.

AA flies from many U.S. cities to Europe through its hubs in Chicago and Dallas. German cities served include Düsseldorf and Frankfurt with daily nonstops. AA flies to Munich, and has recently begun serving Bremen. Nearby Brussels and Zürich are also on the AA routes, as well as Paris and London, and other major European cities. Many of these routes are flown by new Boeing 767s.

GSA serves its members! Fly AA to Buffalo and earn AAdvantage miles. Only 20,000 miles qualifies you for a domestic free flight. Your Buffalo trip, plus a transatlantic flight after July 1 (bonus 2500 miles) will help earn your free ticket. And, you may receive a free transatlantic ticket from GSA!

If our program is successful, we may offer a free transatlantic ticket in 1991 as well. Help us make it a success. Fly the official airline this year!
